

FCT EXECUTIVE JOINS PREMIER ALWARD AND HON. FRANK MCKENNA TO DISCUSS INVESTMENT IN NEW BRUNSWICK

TORONTO, ONTARIO Oct. 24, 2011, – Don MacLeod, Senior Vice President of FCT Insurance Company Ltd, (FCT) took part in a “fireside chat” with the Hon. David Alward, Premier of New Brunswick and the Hon. Frank McKenna, Deputy Chair of TD Bank and former New Brunswick Premier to discuss the benefits of investing in New Brunswick.

FCT is the leading provider of title insurance in Canada and operates in every province. In New Brunswick, FCT has a long-standing presence in the province from 8 employees in 2000, growing to a committed 100 employees in 2012 with support from New Brunswick.

“New Brunswick offers a competitive business environment, a well-educated bilingual workforce and a government that is committed to work in partnership with business,” said Mr. MacLeod. “As the largest single user of the provincial land title system and a major employer in the Moncton area, our view is that as we grow in New Brunswick, the province will benefit and grow as well.”

“We value our partnership with companies like FCT,” said, Robert MacLeod, CEO of Invest NB “and look forward to many years of mutual growth and success.”

The event held at the TD Tower was attended by over 100 people.
